Halloween Dance 1993

A large, dense collage of numerous student portraits from the Halloween Dance 1993. The students are dressed in a variety of costumes, including Darth Vader, a construction worker, a cheerleader, a person with a heart-shaped headband, a person with a tiger-print body, a person with a mask, and many others in casual and creative outfits. The collage is set against a dark background.

Exchange Trips

In October 1992, twenty-five French students visited Belmont for two weeks. They loved celebrating Halloween, eating bagels and hanging out in Harvard Square. Then in April we visited Versailles, France for 16 days. We saw all of the tourist sites, such as le Champs-Élysée and the Louvre. We “did the café thing” and inhaled more cigarette smoke than we ever wanted to. Some students took trips to Normandy and the coast, while others hung out in Versailles. A favorite trip of the group was to Monet’s house at Giverny; the gardens were in full bloom. We became masters at the subway and bus system and took trips in and around Paris. It was hard to get homesick with all of the American music and T.V. shows. The food was rich and filling, and there was never a shortage of baguettes. The soirées were great, and we discovered that dancing all night must be the French secret to staying thin. It was hard to leave after two great weeks of vacation with our French friends. France, a bientôt, nous espérons. Memories: Severine, learning to dance “le rock”, Emily’s tower, surviving French driving, frommage, Amy’s chateau, cathedral stairs, Naf-Naf, “No Limit”, Suzy’s pigeons, French obsession with disco and early ’80’s music.

Captains: Peter Baird, Chris Voce

The season was an enjoyable one. We were all graced with Sonny's beautiful analogies including references to school works and meat products. To summarize the whole season, though, we all just enjoyed each other's company. This was especially evident on the bus rides. Here are a few things that were heard on the bus after a meet: "V.I.C.T. . . . Girls! Shut up! We both lost!," "Oh$*@#!, I'm missing Batman!" (Ryan) "We are going to talk about . . ." (Jed) "Pete, Shut up!" (Dan) "A race is like a test. If you don't do your homework, you won't do well at the meet." (Sonny) "You girls are the best looking team in the league . . . now will anyone go to a movie with me?!" (Peter) "Oh-ho Michael dabadaba . . ." (Peter & Ryan) "I heard a really funny joke . . ." (Peter) "Pete, Shut-up!!!!!" (the whole bus including Dan Rodgers)

If you were a member of the 1993 Belmont Marauder Football Team it seemed that you said, "We should have won," every Saturday. The final record of 4 wins, 6 losses was definitely not an accurate portrayal of how the season went. The team opened by defeating Cambridge and Melrose with relative ease. At 2 and 0, the league had a new contender among the underdogs from Belmont. Woburn and Winchester were definitely winnable games, but were lost due to untimely mental mistakes. After losing to Wakefield 35-34, it seemed the Marauders would never recover Belmont played every team strong and had a "never say die" attitude in every game situation. The climaxes of the season were definitely the win verses Stoneham with no time on the clock, and the sweet taste of revenge on Turkey Day. On the team's best days no team would match up with the nasty play of the 1993 seniors. We shall always remember the high scoring backfield of Sage Cummings, David Jones, and Bashir Hardaway, and the solid line in front of them led by Paul Maitino, Matt Bachman, Mike Discipio, Mark "Hands" Sullivan, Erik Sturtevant, and Danny Shea. The defensive front was led by Bookcases Mark Keegan, Matt Finigan, Dan Powers, and Jay "Muzz" Murray. Nothing seemed to get by the wrath of linebacker Demetri Beldekas. The defensive backfield was led by Biz, Diz, Russell "Smiz" Murphy, and Henry "Stix" Owens. The Marauder special teams were deadly with the crushing hits of Mike Valentino, Mike Salmon, and "crazy" Jimmy Gallo. No other team in the league could match the sideline specialists on the Belmont bench. Belmont High School will definitely miss the 1993 team and all of its character.

GOLF

Captain: Chris Holdredge
Coach White

The Belmont High School Golf Team had an incredible season. The team came away with 2 victories including a stomping of Wakefield and a come from behind victory over the Watertown Red Raiders.

Leading the charge this year was Captain Chris Holdredge, Sophomores Mike Boyle and Kevin Holmes. Kevin had the best record of the season with 6 wins and 3 losses.

In the post season play Coach Don White led Chris Holdredge to the State Championships, and Eric Cafarella, Kevin Holmes, and Chris Holdredge to the Middlesex League Championship.

There were many memories and lots of laughs this season. Good luck next year and remember, the golf team does have a banner in the field house.

Captains: T.J. Killilea, Joe Henry, Sam Gordenstein, Matt Wheelwright

This was the last year for a talented group of seniors who were undefeated as freshmen, won the league as sophomores, and were second as juniors to leave their mark on Belmont High School. At the end of a grueling 18 game schedule, we were first in the standings with a 15-2-3 record. Our first playoff game was a memorable four overtime mudfest victory over our perennial league rivals, Burlington. Our next game was a shoot-out victory over Concord after four scoreless overtimes. Our season ended with a loss to Danvers, as Coach Prohaska said, "The machine had run out of gas." Our efforts were recognized by the league coaches, as eight players were voted as league all-stars.

For the last 3 years B.H.S. Soccer has been on the brink of greatness. But this year we burst through all the way to a 12-5-3 record and the semi-finals of the tournament before bowing to Masconomet and Becky Blaeshead. (20 more min.) Through the season we beat or tied the teams ranked in the top 20 of the state, Burlington, Woburn, Wakefield, Masco (well, almost) During preseason we set 4 goals for ourselves 1. Make it to States 2. Have a good time 3. Become a part of the iron 4. Get new warm-ups. 3 out of 4 isn't bad. The Middlesex League is a tough one with a variety of different players including the most over-rated player in the state in Jenna D. and the most under-rated player in the state in Libby Hayes. Mr. Graham, we know who the real Coach of the Year is. (Congratulations Lori!) We'd like to thank the Cheerleaders for their support in the first-half of the North-Reading game, the Boys Soccer Team for their undying support (We lived & died together), Mrs. Graham, the Hughes, the Fitzgeralds, Gerry for continual support at all our games, the Burlington Team, the Lex boys team for comforting us that lonely night on the field, Christina & Erica for organizing & attending all our events and Mr. Fitzpatrick: we couldn't of won the Lexington game without you! (Ribbit) P.S. Freshmen, don't think you're safe, the broom's still in Lib's trunk.

The Belmont Girl's Swimteam had a terrific season. We had a record of 6-1, placing us second in the Middlesex League, behind Reading. The swimmers were also second to Reading at the League meet, and the divers were League Champions. We had nine swimmers were also second to Reading at the League meet, and the divers were League Champions. We had nine swimmers qualify for post-season meets. As always we were a very spirited team and were closely bonded. We would like to thank coaches Ann Murray, for her work with the swimmers, and Mr. Acconero for his work with the divers. Mr. Acconero will be greatly missed next year. We wish the swimteam the best of luck in the future. Love, Liz and Sabina.

The varsity had an extraordinarily successful season, finishing 19-3. The team won the Middlesex League championship outright, the first time Belmont has done that in close to 40 years. The team was led by three league all-stars; Matt Christensen, Mike Costello, and Doug Connolly. The seven seniors that were on the team made great contributions throughout the year. The team ran off 16 straight wins and failed to lose a single game on the road in the regular season. After stomping North Andover in the first round, the boys dropped a 74-72 decision to South Boston. The team would like to thank Coach Lyons for his efforts and support for the entire season, and also Coach Frank Costello for his guidance and support over the past four years.

The Gymnastics team ended the winter season with a record of 1-7-0. Led by coaches Ralph DeVito and Janet Lemi, our young team set out and accomplished numerous personal and team goals. We will miss sophomores Abby, Liana, and Elissa, as well as freshmen Mickey, Frenchie, Penguin, Froggy, Megan, Julia, Sonia, K.O., Mika, and Lisa. We will never forget the time you threw us both into the showers. (Don't worry. We will get you guys back!) "We will also never be able to forget the huge water and cake fight we had on the bus ride home from Reading. Best of luck in the future. We will definitely come back and visit.

The 1993-1994 Belmont High School season a memorable one. It will always be remembered as the season Belmont Hockey returned to the state tournament. There have been many great memories for the 1993-1994 season, the 2-1 win over Reading and the revolver speech before the third period, the 4-1 win over Burlington at home, and the Mohawks before the Wakefield game. This team only loses three seniors, hardworking, spirited Mike Discipio, All-score and leading goal scorer Chris Rissmiller, and captain Mike Condelli. The 1993-1994 hockey team would like to thank the 1992-1993 team for building the foundation for this years triumphant return, and our dedicated fans who have been tremendous. Belmont Hockey is back!

The season was a great success for the first year of the girls' ice hockey team. Having started off with many girls who never played before, the season ended with true, "immense" hockey players. From being shut out, 7-0, in the first game by Newton Country Day to Belmont shutting them out at the end of the season, all the girls improved tremendously and showed such dedication to the team. Who would have guessed that the girls would gain so much prosperity their inaugural season! The team will never be able to thank all its supporters enough for the help they provided in starting a girls' ice hockey team at Belmont High School.

Memories: Roses from the boys before our first game; "Ya — you know it!"; BJ's hat trick; "I will Survive"; Flynnie's first penalty; Globe; mix-match practice; victories; rink poisoning;

Good luck girls in the future! We hope you remain so successful!

Love,
 Meredith, Tali,
 and the rest of the seniors.

Missing from picture: Brad Carman, Seijin Cummings.

This season has been more of a season for personal achievements than for achievement for the teams as a whole. Our team was a young team and lacked the depth of a team that would be competitive with the top teams in the league. But, tremendous improvement was noted in almost every runner, high jumper, hurdler, and shot putter's best performances. Everybody on the team really worked hard and it really paid off with much of the team getting their personal bests. The season highlights included Chris Voce running the fastest 400 meter + 1 lap the school has ever seen; an under-classman relay team winning the relay (due to disqualification); watching Ballard run a 30.something, Johann run a 4.9, and some guy in his forties run a 3:57 mile; Brad telling everybody that he knew Ballard, Johann, and the 40 year old guy personally; and a meet held in 5 kajillion feet of ice and snow.

Second Row: Boris Klimovitsky, Coach Ann Murray, Frank Hu, Jamie Notopoulos, Anthony Tobio, Ted O'Connell, Jacob Brauer, Asst. Coach Lori Blasioli. Kneeling: Ryo Nishiyama, Kris Gandrup, Eric Bucher

Despite a particularly strong opposition this year, the men's swim team gave the strongest effort ever since their last few seasons. We ended with a 2 and 3 record in the league and a 3 and 4 record overall, sending three swimmers and three relays to the North Sectional meets and two swimmers to States. The team faced a rocky beginning with the loss of a certain assistant coach sensation, Joe Acconero, but with the help of the captains, the team persevered through this and other setbacks. The team Captains would like to thank all the members of the Men's team for the time and effort put forth by all of you, we both feel enriched by our experience with you. Special thanks to coach Ann Murray, asst. coach Lori Blasioli, and our plethora of managers.

WRESTLING

Due to a small lineup of only nine wrestlers, in a sport in which there are thirteen weightclasses, the team won only one match. Despite the teams poor record it still had several standouts. Under the guidance of first year coach Chris Ryan four wrestlers advanced to the post-season. Sophomore Jon Hartunian placed third in the league, sectional and West Roxbury tournaments. First year Senior Matt Finigan placed fourth at the Belmont tournament and wrestled like a seasoned veteran with his fifth place finish at sectionals. Senior Karl Barkei placed third in the West Roxbury, and Middlesex league tourney as well as two second place finishes at the Belmont and sectional tournament. Despite not wrestling for two years, Karl had an excellent season and posted a 22-6 record. Senior Captain Greg Hartunian had a great season posting a 30-4 record and winning every tournament he entered except the State Tourney. Hartunian won the West Roxbury, Belmont, Middlesex League, and Sectional Tournament and he placed third at the Division Three state meet and seventh at the allstate meet. Hartunian was also crowned the Middlesex League's "outstanding wrestler." He also won the same award at the sectional meet. With the coaching of Chris Ryand and the leadership of Jon Hartunian and Mike Burns, next year should be a successful one for Marauder Wrestling.

Dear Classmates,

Our four years at Belmont High School have been as diverse as the students who make up the class of 1994. We came to the high school as small, immature, innocent freshmen, and we leave as graduates; bigger, smarter, and a lot of less innocent. Through these four years we have all grown, not just intellectually, but socially as well. Belmont High School has helped us in our growth, but we have also helped Belmont High School in its progress to become a better place. Each and every one of us has added a little bit to the personality of Belmont High School. In our class we have had many great athletes, actors and actresses, musicians, writers, and artists, but more importantly we've had some great people. We graduate from Belmont High School with mixed emotions, happy to go on with our lives, but sad to leave the places and people that have been a part of our lives for four years. Good luck to all the students of the class of 1994 in your future endeavors, and thank you for making these four years so great.

Your friend,
Mike Condelli

Dear Seniors,

It certainly does not seem like four years have passed since you entered Belmont High School as freshmen. The years seem to have passed so quickly. The class of 1994 has contributed so much to the high school especially in the areas of academics, athletics, music and drama. Seniors, you will be remembered fondly.

We have enjoyed working with you on your various projects and activities.

Good luck and much success in the future.

Anne and Susan

To a Deserted Nest

The nest is empty — no more a nest
But just a bit of straw and leaves
That wind and rain must soon divest
Of form. Yet no one grieves.

The birds have flown. The nest was never
Designed to shelter them forever —
This fragile thing beneath the sky
To which they soon would fly.

Deserted nest — it served its need
Like the cocoon that winds may comb;
When wings are strong, the birds are freed
To find the world as home.

I STILL HAVEN'T FOUND WHAT I'M LOOKING FOR

As we walk down the tracks of life, look back and remember the good times as well as the bad, the happy as well as the sad, and remember that we will always be with you.

The tracks are long and winding, as the days are sometimes hard, but around the next corner, or in the next yard, we will always be with you. Let's go on in life as we have, and spend our time on happy days, and sometime in the future we will meet again.

GOOD LUCK CLASS OF 1994!

I thought of all the bad luck and the struggles we went through; how I lost me, and you lost you. I never want to lose your love, or let the distance get the best of us, 'cause time is moving fast enough. Don't you ever think that I don't love you or for one minute I forgot you, but sometimes things don't work out right, and we just have to say goodbye. It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

You came and opened me, and now there's so much more I see, and so by the way I thank you. Oh, and then, for the times when we're apart, just close your eyes and know the words are coming from my heart. And then if you can remember, keeping smiling, keep shining, knowing you can always count on me, for sure. That's what friends are for.

I will always love you.
